TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND ORDER SETTING HEARING FOR TEMPORARY ORDERS

The application of Petitioner, MARK DEAN HUBBARD, for temporary restraining order was presented to the Court today. Respondent is MARIA DEAN HUBBARD.

The children the subject of this suit are

The Court examined the pleadings of Petitioner and finds that Petitioner is entitled to a temporary restraining order.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the clerk of this Court issue a temporary restraining order restraining Respondent, and Respondent is immediately restrained, from:

1. Destroying, disposing of, or altering any e-mail or other electronic data relevant to the subject matters of this case, whether stored on a hard drive or on a diskette or other electronic storage device.
2. Permitting an unrelated adult with whom Respondent has an intimate or dating relationship, including but not limited to Robert Young, Eric J. Holden, Rick Holden and Clay Wood, to be in the presence of the children between the hours of 9:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m.

This restraining order is effective immediately and shall continue in force and effect until further order of this Court or until it expires by operation of law. This order shall be binding on Respondent; on Respondent's agents, servants, and employees; and on those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this order by personal service or otherwise. The requirement of a bond is waived.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the clerk shall issue notice to Respondent, MARIA DEAN HUBBARD, to appear, and Respondent is ORDERED to appear in person, before this Court in the courthouse at 1100 University Ave., Huntsville, Texas, on October 28, 2014 at 9:30 A. M. The purpose of the hearing is to determine whether, while this case is pending:

1. The preceding temporary restraining order should be made a temporary injunction pending final hearing.
2. Petitioner should be awarded the exclusive use and possession of the residence located at [REDACTED] furnishings, and other personal property at that residence, while this case is pending, and Respondent should be enjoined from entering or remaining on the premises of the residence and exercising possession or control of any of this personal property, except as authorized by order of this Court.
3. Petitioner should be awarded exclusive use and control of the [REDACTED] and Respondent should be enjoined from entering, operating, or exercising control over it.
4. The Court should order payment of the community debt, including ordering that each party pay their own living expenses.
5. Respondent should be ordered to reimburse Petitioner for the cost of her health insurance through Petitioner's employment.
6. Respondent should be ordered to reimburse Petitioner for the cost of the automobile insurance on the motor vehicle in the possession of Respondent.
7. The Court should order a valuation of the business known as Texas Polygraph Services.
8. Petitioner and Respondent should be appointed temporary joint managing conservators, and Petitioner should be designated as the conservator who has the exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the children.
9. Respondent should be ordered to pay child support, health insurance premiums for coverage on the children, 50 percent of the children's uninsured medical expenses, and one-half of the children's day-care expenses while this case is pending.
10. The residence of the children should be restricted to Walker County, Texas.
11. The Court should make all other and further orders respecting the property and the parties that are pleaded for or that are deemed necessary and equitable and for the safety and welfare of the children.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any authorized person eighteen years of age or older who is not a party to or interested in the outcome of this case may serve any citation, notice, or process in this case.
