20. If you plead GUILTY, the judge may require you to make restitution to any victim of the offense [18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3664]. If you plead GUILTY to an offense that occurred on or after April 24, 1996, and the offense falls into certain categories of offenses, including property offenses and crimes of violence, ordinarily the judge is required to order you to pay restitution to any victim of the offense [18 U.S.C. § 3663A]. Also, in certain cases, the law identifies specific classes of people or organizations that may be entitled to restitution. Restitution is a continuing obligation that does not end until it is paid in full. In other words, the United States may continue to seek restitution from you even though you are no longer serving a sentence of confinement or supervision. Do you understand all of this?
Yes No
21. The judge must impose a special assessment for each count to which you enter a plea of guilty. The amount of the special assessment depends on whether the offense is a felony or a misdemeanor [18 U.S.C. § 3013]. D. SENTENCING GUIDELINES AND OTHER SENTENCING CONSIDERATIONS

25. In determining an appropriate sentence for a federal crime, the judge must consider the Sentencing Guidelines developed by the United States Sentencing Commission. The Sentencing Guidelines are advisory in nature, not mandatory. The judge must consider imposing a sentence within the range established by the Sentencing Guidelines, but the judge may impose a sentence either above or below that range. Do you understand this? Yes No
26. In calculating the range of sentence under the advisory Sentencing Guidelines, the judge will take into account all conduct, circumstances, and injuries associated with your criminal conduct, whether or not this conduct is formally charged by the government. The judge will consider all relevant conduct at the time of sentencing even though you are pleading guilty to fewer than all counts in the Indictment or Information. Do you understand this? Yes No
27. Also, there is no limitation placed on the information the judge can consider at the time of sentencing concerning your background, character, and conduct so long as the information is reliable. The judge will take all of these factors into consideration in determining an appropriate sentence. Do you understand this? Yes No
28. If the judge orders a presentence investigation, a U.S. Probation Officer will be assigned to conduct a thorough investigation and prepare a presentence report for the judge's use. Do you understand that if you lie to the U.S. Probation Officer, or if you cause others to lie on your behalf, this can be considered by the judge and may increase the range of sentence calculated under the advisory Sentencing Guidelines? Yes No
29. Your history of prior criminal convictions will be used to compute your Criminal History Category under the Sentencing Guidelines. If you have prior felony convictions which were imposed or for which you have served time within the past 15 years, your Criminal History Category may be increased. Similarly, if you have received misdemeanor convictions within the past 10 years, your Criminal History Category may be increased. Certain exceptions may apply in your case that would exclude a conviction from the Criminal History Category computation. Nonetheless, do you understand your prior criminal history has a direct impact on the calculation of the sentencing range under the advisory Sentencing Guidelines? Yes No

30. Do you understand if you committed the present offense(s) while you were on probation, parole, supervised release, or escape status, this will increase the number of points assessed in your criminal history computation? If this increases your Criminal History Category, do you understand it may increase the range of sentence calculated under the advisory Sentencing Guidelines? Yes No
31. Do you understand if this offense is a crime of violence or a drug trafficking offense, and if you have two prior felony convictions of either a crime of violence or a drug trafficking offense, you could be sentenced as a career criminal offender which would increase the sentence you receive? Yes No Not Applicable
32. The maximum sentence for the offense(s) to which you want to plead guilty is the statutory maximum set out in ¶¶ 19, 20 and 21 above. If you are pleading guilty to more than one count, you could receive the maximum sentence on each count of conviction running consecutively (C/S). See USSG § 5G1.2. Do you understand this? Yes No
33. In certain cases, the law requires the judge to impose a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment. Before the judge may impose a sentence below a mandatory minimum term, the United States Attorney must file a motion recommending a lesser sentence. The United States Attorney has the discretion to file such a motion if the person provides substantial assistance in the investigation or prosecution of another person. Do you understand this? Yes No Not Applicable
34. If you cooperate and provide substantial assistance to investigating authorities, the United States Attorney has the discretion to file a motion requesting that the judge impose a sentence below the range of sentence calculated under the advisory Sentencing Guidelines. Do you understand this? Yes No
35. Parole is not available in the federal system. If you are sentenced to a term of imprisonment, you will serve the entire time imposed (less any earned good time credits that may be applied to reduce the amount of time you actually serve). The maximum amount of credit you may receive against your sentence will be determined by the Bureau of Prisons and is limited by statute [18 U.S.C. § 3624]. Do you understand this? Yes No
36. If at least one year of imprisonment is ordered in your case, the judge may also impose a term of supervised release, which you will begin serving after you are released from custody. For certain offenses, a term of supervised release is mandatory. During any term of supervised release, you will be subject to conditions that will include refraining from any additional violations of local, state or federal law, reporting requirements, travel and residence restrictions, and testing for controlled substance use. If you violate the conditions of your supervised release, the judge may revoke your supervised release and sentence you to an additional term of imprisonment. This additional term of imprisonment would be served without credit for the time you successfully spent on supervised release. Do you understand this? Yes No

The judge has the discretion to impose another term of supervised release, to be served after you serve your sentence for violating the first term of supervised release. If you violate you supervised release again, you can be sentenced to serve more time, followed by more supervised release, at the discretion of the judge. Under certain circumstances there is no limit to the number of times supervised release can be revoked and another term of supervised release imposed. Do you understand this? Yes No

37. In some circumstances, the judge may decide that your case warrants imposing a sentence with conditions other than incarceration for the full term of the sentence. Options available to the judge include probation, home confinement, community confinement, electronic monitoring, intermittent confinement, or a combination of any of these. Do you understand this? Yes No

38. If you plead guilty to a federal sex offense, you may be subject to state laws requiring the registration of sex offenders. Do you understand this?
 Yes No Not Applicable

Do you understand all of the terms of the plea agreement, including the waivers of your rights? Yes _____ No _____

(c) What are your reasons for making that agreement?

(d) If your plea of GUILTY involves a plea agreement, do you understand that the judge can reject the plea agreement after completion of the presentence investigation if the judge finds that the plea agreement is not in the interests of justice? Yes _____ No _____

41. Has any promise been made by anyone that causes you to plead GUILTY aside from the plea agreement, if any, set out in your answer to question 40? Yes _____ No If yes, what promise has been made and by whom?

42. (a) Has any officer, attorney or agent of any branch of government (federal, state or local) promised or predicted that you will receive a lighter sentence, or probation, or any other form of leniency if you plead GUILTY? Yes _____ No

(b) Do you understand no one has any authority to make any such promise or prediction on your sentence because the matter of sentencing is exclusively within the control of the judge and no one else? Yes No _____

- 43. Has the judge made any suggestion as to what the actual sentence will be?
Yes _____ No
- 44. Are you pleading GUILTY because you are guilty? · Yes No _____ representations, and promises.

Count three of the indictment alleges that in or around October 2012, in the Western District of Oklahoma and elsewhere, defendant did knowingly and corruptly persuade and attempt to persuade Undercover A to conceal material facts and make false statements with the intent to influence, delay, and prevent the testimony of Undercover A in an official proceeding, namely an investigation being conducted by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security into Undercover A's criminal conduct.

Count four of the indictment alleges that in or around October 2012, in the Western District of Oklahoma and elsewhere, defendant did knowingly and corruptly persuade and attempt to persuade Undercover A to conceal material facts and make false statements with the intent to hinder, delay, and prevent the communication to special agents of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security of information relating to the possible commission of a Federal offense.

Count five of the indictment alleges that in or around February 2013, in the Western District of Oklahoma and elsewhere, defendant did knowingly and corruptly persuade and attempt to persuade Undercover B to conceal material facts and make false statements with the intent to influence, delay, and prevent the testimony of Undercover B in an official proceeding, that is, a pre-employment suitability determination and security background investigation conducted by U.S. Customs and Border Protection.

~~Defendant has pleaded not guilty to each and every Count.~~
