Oh damn- I forgot, I explained it all to Ray not you.

It pulled off- at least one person got in. - It turned down side street. A postal truck between us tried to turn- it couldn't make the turn. I got screwed and lost it.

Asked my guy to put word out to let me know if there is a sighting.

Meantime he said if Leah was w her, they would be going to dinner or to JLo's- says Leah stays over at JLo's often as well.

At one point they got to the ref light in front of the Manhattan bridge. I'm in far left lane. They are far right. Ray is center lane several cars back.

Light turned green, I paused 3 seconds, then slowly pulled off onto the bridge. Ray did the same but had to start moving as well and onto the bridge- there was traffic behind us and in each lane.

Then it was a game to use rear view mirrors to locate their headlights in a sea of headlights 20 blocks behind us- I get off bridge and go right and ray goes left . I sit and wait and about 60 seconds later there they are getting off - going right.

Then I got back on them and they started driving down side streets,
and stopping and turning and speeding up, etc

It ended w me ending up directly in front of them and them directly behind me. They were behind me for 10 blocks then stopped. I kept going about 10 blocks and did a u turn to come back toward them. Ray was a few cars behind them in traffic and a large truck.

As I passed them they pulled out and the truck blocked ray at the light. I did another u turn but was several cars behind ray when I completed it.

Bam- they were gone.

She tells me that when she was filming a movie recently with Jennifer Lopez, you were in a car waiting to tail her for several hours.

I was hoping I could talk to you about that. Were you working for Scientology on that assignment?
