Series & Number	Relevant Polygraph Test Question	Respo
Series I	Standard Series II Screening Format	No

Case Synopsis/Interview Results

Reference is made to the authorization given by the SAIC - Forensic Services Division to administer this examination dated 09-24-99.

The examinee is an applicant for employment within the United States Secret Service. In accordance with Secret Service employment regulations, the examinee was administered a standard pre-employment screening exam.

The applicant failed the standard applicant screening exam (drug question) and made no admissions.

Reference is made to the previous examination conducted on 10/05/99 by SA Clarence Jorif. This is a retest of all Series II relevant questions.

A review of Special Agent applicant DARRYN MOORE's application forms revealed that he filed for bankruptcy in 1990. It was further noted that MOORE had received a one (1) day suspension in 1992 while employed with the Atlanta Police Department. MOORE also had a judgement against him in 1997 for unpaid taxes. No other derogatory information was listed.

During the Series I pre-test, MOORE made no admissions.

During the Series I in-test, MOORE displayed Significant Response to the relevant question concerning illegal drugs.

During the Series I post-test, MOORE made no admissions.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE

November 19, 1999

Mr. Darryn M. Moore
[REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Moore:

This is to advise you of the action taken on your application for a position as a Special Agent with the United States Secret Service.

Your application was reviewed along with those of all other applicants. I regret to inform you that, after careful consideration of each applicant's qualifications, you were not selected. I realize that non-selection is a disappointment; however, considering the high quality of all who applied, you should be pleased that you were among those who were considered for employment.

Thank you for your interest in the United States Secret Service.

Sincerely yours,

Donna L. Burgess, Chief
Special Agent and Office of Investigations Support Branch
