Mr. John

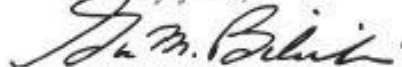

Dear Mr.

I have just been informed by the officials at the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) that it will be an additional 7 months before your case will be heard by the judge. Unfortunately, each judge is currently inundated with their own cases as well as cases from other congressional offices. If you have not received any correspondence from the EEOC within the next 6 months, I recommend contacting my office again for a follow up to your inquiry.

It is personally disappointing to me that this matter could not have been more favorably resolved. The final determination, however, was based on existing regulations and guidelines under which this agency must operate.

While I wish this matter could have been resolved differently, I appreciate the opportunity you have given me to inquire on your behalf. I hope you will feel free to contact me in the future regarding any federal matter of concern to you.

Sincerely yours,

Gus M. Bilirakis
Member of Congress
