Here is the resignation that I am being bullied into giving. This is a better alternative than standing before what amounts to a kangaroo court with all ability to defend myself denied to me.

This is being sent to all the email addresses on the TAPE registry that did not go to email paid by tax payers. This is to prevent TAPE, its board, Holden, Parker or Sheppard from lying Supporting documentation will follow immediately after this email.

This resignation is effective as of right now. I will not be answerable to an organization which can not follow its own bylaws. If this sounds angry or bitter, I am. I simply asked to be treated fairly and no one can even do that. I am willing to bet that if I was anyone else, I would have been given the opportunity to defend myself tomorrow. Because I am Joe McCarthy and I dared to stand up to Holden, Parker and the rest of the self entitled clan, I am not worthy of a hearing that would even appear to be fair. I am worthy of the TAPE Board changing the rules to keep me silent so their unethical behavior regarding the bylaws, fair play or good faith are never revealed.

I was told there would be no vote is I resigned, here it is. I hope they all choke on it and bad luck and failure curse them and their families for generations to come until this is made right.

For the record, I was willing to stand up and defend myself. I was willing to let the membership vote and be held accountable for my actions if that is what the membership decided. All I asked was to be treated fairly and to have the bylaws followed. The people you voted for were either incapable or unwilling to let that happen. So much for democracy.

By the way, your "president" has been MIA throughout this process. Why bother being involved if Holden and Parker have already decided the outcome huh Jack.

As far as Hubbard goes AKA Jay Holden's "little coconut", I hope the 30 pieces of silver are worth it.

To TAPE, Your board and its members are being told to cease and desist from any further dissemination of the "McCarthy Package" or packet in any way shape or form. You can not prove the accusations to be accurate and or factual. Any further dissemination may result in a libel action against TAPE and the member for which the action can be traced back to. Anyone who thinks you can remain anonymous, remember I found out that lieguytoo was ~~Charles Spange~~. Which is interesting. Wasn't he a member of the Board of Directors at the time is was sending racist, sexually suggestive and threatening emails to me and my wife and libeling me? And didn't he work for Behavioral Measures? If I remember correctly the IP addressees traced back to the Behavioral Measures mailing address.

He was representing TAPE and Behavioral Measures at that time: neither organization even so much as apologized for the behavior of its employee or in TAPE's case Officer and no action was taken to make sure it would never happen again. It is easy to presume that his behavior is condoned through silence by both organizations. So much for not having any involvement or condoning racism, sexism or any other behaviors that would be damaging to the organization or its members.

Proof regarding the racist, sexually suggestive and threatening emails and the IP address traces available upon request.
